

Eleanor ter Horst

Distinguished Service Award

The Probate and Trust Law Section of the State Bar of Arizona is seeking nominations for the ELEANOR TER HORST DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD. Eleanor ter Horst left her private practice to become Probate Counsel for Pima County in 1986. As Probate Counsel, Eleanor answered thousands of phone calls from attorneys and other who needed help with Title 14 matters, mental health hearings, and navigation in the Pima County Court House. She also met with attorneys in her office, fielded inquires from attorneys outside of Pima County, participated in CLE programs concerning Title 14, served as court commissioner and judge pro tempore, and was an editor of the 3rd and 4th editions of the Probate Manual published the State Bar of Arizona. This description of her good works is not exhaustive but only illustrative of the reasons the Probate and Trust Section gave special recognition to Eleanor at the Bar Convention in 2001 with the first Eleanor ter Horst Award.

The Probate and Trust Section now wishes to recognize other attorneys or judicial officers who have rendered significant service in the probate and trust area. The Section is seeking nominations for the next Eleanor ter Horst Distinguished Service Award, which is to be presented at the Annual Meeting of the Probate and Trust Section, State Bar Convention, Thursday, June 19, 2008 at 8:30 a.m. at the Westin La Paloma in Tucson.
